To Her Grace,

Her Majeſties High Commiſsioner,

And the Right Honourable Eſtates of Dumblane, Presbytery

PARLIAMENT,

The Humble ADDRESS of the Presbytry of

DUMBLANE.

Sheweth,

THAT We having ſeen the ſeveral Faithful and Seaſonable Addreſſes and Repreſentations of our Brethren of the Commiſſion, to Your Grace and Lordſhips; all which we concur in, and agree to, as expreſſive of our Known and Covenanted Principles; and tho it may appear unneceſſar, that we ſhould give Your Grace and the Honourable Eſtates of Parliament any trouble this way; yet from a Senſe of the Duty we owe to God at this Juncture, to our Gracious Soveraign Queen Anne (whom the Lord long preſerve for a Bleſſing to this Church and Nation) and to your Grace and Lordſhips; We could not forbear in all humility to Repreſent, how much we are Alarm'd, with the preſent Scheme of Union in the Printed Articles, as apprehending the Fatal Conſequences thereof, in the Event of a Britiſh Parliament to our Sacred and Religious Concerns, and to which we can not go in, without Guilt before God, in a manifeſt Breach of our Solemn Covenants, by which we are Ingaged, againſt Eccleſiaſtical Perſons being Legiſlators in the Common-Wealth. The Setting up of publick Maſs, and Engliſh Ceremonies, The Illegal and Diſorderly Practices of the Epiſcopal Clergy, from the hopes of a Popiſh Succeſſor to the Crown, without any Effectual Redreſs from the Government, (Notwithſtanding of Repeated Application made by this Church) do give Juſt Umbrage of what may be Expected, when Scotland and England are United into one Kingdom, and Repreſented by one, and the ſame Parliament.

May it therefore pleaſe Your Grace, and the Honourable Eſtates of Parliament, to be tender of the Peace and Quiet of this Church and Nation, and Settle the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line; and to do nothing that may be Prejudicial to this National Church, in any of its Religious, or Sacred Intereſts; which Her Majeſty in Her Gracious Letter, Back'd with your Grace and my Lord Chancellors Speeches to this preſent Seſſion of Parliament; give Juſt ground to Expect.

Michael Potter
John Crockat Elder
John Henderſon Elder
Tho: Prymroſe Elder.

Robert Gourlau
Math: Wallace
Hugh Walker
Arthur Forbes

George Campbell Modr:
Michael Potter
Alexander Duglaſs
Tho: Buchanan

BRITISH 23 OC 90 MUSEUM